They are not necessarily horror stories but rather the type of tale that makes you shiver. The literature is chosen for its accessibility to young readers and includes many of today's major authors. The book aims to provide varied and stimulating material reflecting male and female interests and an awareness of our multicultural world. The books are suitable for class use and for GCSE examination and coursework providing material for wider reading programmes and the opportunity for more detailed study of the works. It encourages pupils to consider alternative ways of looking at a play or story and to express their personal views using supporting evidence from the text. 165 pp. Englisch.
