Zanne Sweeney, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A stand-alone, fast-paced romantic thriller that spans the globe. Packed with action, intrigue, genuine passion, espionage, and dangerous secrets, a story that is assured to have your heart racing and melting. Bliss Allen knows everything about computers, and nothing about men or anything else considered socially normal. She's a loner living with a severe eyesight disability forcing her to wear thick eyeglasses that have made her the butt of too many jokes. Despite her low self-esteem and other tragic blows dealt with; Bliss doesn't let life pass her by. She becomes an Army Cryptologist and is thrilled to serve her country. Her only fear is if someone were to learn the secret she has been harboring. Her reclusive lifestyle and her Mr. Magoo eyeglasses have branded her as an oddball; if they only knew. Conner Doherty is Special Forces, career military, and a seasoned team leader. His life is his job. The first time he saw Bliss she was a gawky teenager, but the girl could play a mean video game, and Conner loves video games. His second indulgence he allows is an occasional hookup. He's unlike his brother and his best friend who actively pursue women. Conner doesn't need to play that game; women desire him, and they are not shy about it. They come to him, they set the pace, and he delivers everything they crave; except a second date. Years later, home from Afghanistan to train for a new mission Conner sees Bliss again, but now she's all grown up. There is something so unique about her, but she's his little sister's best friend, his video game buddy, and there is...
