Stoddart, Toronto, 2001. Hard Cover in Dust Jacket. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First Edition. 2001 First Edition HARDCOVER book in Dust Jacket . BRAND NEW from 2001 publisher . Never opened, Never read , Never marked . Book size : 6" wide x 9" tall x 1-1/4" thick. True Crime - Law Enforcement . Cal Broeker - tall, handsome, larger-than-life - was a man to reckon with in his town in upstate New York . He was on the advisory board of his local bank and the parish council of his local church . He was a successful businessman who ran a grocery store, a restaurant, and an antique shop . He had a wife and children . Life was good . Then it all went very wrong, when he discovered that his new business partners in Montreal were linked to ruthless assassins in a global network of organized crime . And that his wife was having an affair with his own brother . and his trusted business associates were mismanaging his interests and destroying his reputation . To regain his good name, Cal cooperated with the U.S. Secret Service and the RCMP, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, working his way into the confidence of criminals both large and small, and often uncovering their connections to big business in the process . Soon his handlers realized just what they were handling: one of the best undercover agents they had ever encountered . A virtuoso . Neither a cop nor an informer, Cal was unique . He could go farther undercover than any law enforcement agent . He penetrated deep into the heart of biker gangs, drug cartels, Mohawk smuggling operations, and the Russian Mafia . What he found - and what this book documents, in writing that reads like...
