Not illustrated. 1903 Excerpt: . . . why he had five; But none of them are now alive: And his sweet wife, our countrys pride, Three months ago in childbed died. Her death made many a bosom ake Upon the banks of Keswick Lake. She thought not, as fine ladies do, Of dresses smart, all pink and blue, Who think to catch the wandring eye Of any fool thaths passing by. Whereer she movd, so nice, so fair, All viewd the well-bred lady there: But more who did my mistress see Saw the mild form of Charity. --As for my master, he can show More learning than een Bishops know. What knowledge lies beneath his hat And the fine wig thaths combd by Pat! No, your great Church does not contain The treasure lockd within his brain. L. But what of that, it will not do, If here your master comes to woo: Learning, Im sure, will never thrive In widows hearts of thirty-five. P. Pooh, nonsense, this is all your sporting; My master comes not here a courting; O Heaven forbid, says honest Pat, That he should play a prank like that! For worse or better should he take 1 Your mistress, many a heart would break V Of dame or damsel round our lake. J Besides there is a widow, Dear, With full twelve-hundred pounds a year: And what I tell you, faith, is true, 1 For to speak lies I could not do J-To such a pretty girl as you--J...
