Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Memoir of the Life of Samuel Austin Hitchcock, of Brimfield, Mass In these days of general social extravagance in living and of reckless expenditure of money for private and public uses, it is well to notice such honorable exceptions to the prevailing spirit and habits of the times as may serve to check these characteristic tendencies, recalling us to higher ideals of life, and to a juster appreciation of its true significance and worth. The record of such a life as that of Samuel Austin Hitchcock is here presented to the readers of the Congregational Quarterly, not because of its approximation to the highest ideal, so much as because of its contrast to present prevailing notions and usages. His is not a name, indeed, that will be associated with the great intellects or the heroic spirits that have, through their connection with the institutions of New England, exerted a world-wide influence on the thoughts and actions of men; but the organizations which his munificence has originated or fostered will bear the impress of his spirit, and perpetuate his influence far onward into the future. Samuel Austin Hitchcock was born in Brimfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, January 9, 1794. His father, Gad Hitchcock, was a native of Union, a town in Connecticut adjoining Brimfield, and in early life served the usual apprenticeship in the tailor s trade with Mr. Gates, a clothier, of East Brimfield; but for many years he was a hatter by trade. The two occupations named were in those days more intimately connected even than in the ready-made clothing-stores of our modern New England villages. As these trades of the olden times failed...
