MODERN MADNESS: RHYMES AGAINST HUMANITY (PAPERBACK)*DOWNLOAD

Inferno Press, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A bold and fiery introduction to Ross Adamson's unique brand of rhythmical rhyming poetry. Modern Madness takes no prisoners and buzzes with cynical wit, lyrical charm and righteous rage. This storming debut collection is both a masterwork of powerful, poignant verse and a timely, trenchant indictment of early 21st century society. It will make you think, smile, glower, question, nod, tap your foot and shake your fist. Humankind has lost its way and modern life is absurd, alienating and increasingly unfair. Madness, in every sense of the word - foolishness, irrationality, rashness, fanaticism, delusion, insanity and fury - has pervaded contemporary culture and shows no sign of abating. Channeling the divine madness of poetry, Adamson's deft and defiant rhymes adeptly target the perceived inequities and inadequacies of our age: the flaws, foibles and futile preoccupations that must, surely, be in consequence of this modern madness. Despite our evolved advantages, our scientific progress and our pre-eminent place in the world, we appear to be hell-bent on destroying ourselves whilst irreparably wrecking the only planet we know can sustain life. Powerful and privileged people - those with the greatest influence - seem solely concerned with expanding their power and privilege, at the expense of everyone and everything else. As the environment buckles under the strain of human greed and negligence, our so-called leaders duck responsibilities, deny obvious truths and defer crucial action until too late, or too little, to be of value. Obsessed with money, status and control, they advance their own corrupt and mercenary agendas, pushing short-sighted policies and chasing short-term gains. The threat of war looms ominously, and terrorism - both real and imagined - is used to justify...
