Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The lusts of Internet love, the greed and gluttony of the mortgage meltdown, the sloth of those slow to address climate change, the wrath of the technowarfare state and shock journalism, the envy of Wall Street fat cats and wheeler-dealers, and the immeasurable pride of Americans despite it all. These are the Seven Deadly Sins, circa America, 21st Century. American Inferno is a retelling of Dante's classic 700-year-old tale for the modern age, an age where men doubt: themselves, others, and the gods. and, ultimately, where we and the gods go from here. Join Dr. Durant Allegheny, rational scientific disbeliever, and the mysterious Virgil in a journey up the Appalachian Trail and into an inexplicable world of holy men, demons, and all-too-fallible men capable of both good and bad as he seeks both to find the meaning of it all and confront the Powers that may or may not be in an American Inferno. Reviews A crazy, wild journey up an Appalachian Trail paved with the stones of a philosophical quest. But, delightfully, the end product is Lowery's very own. Dr. Durant Allegheny-could it be his real name? perception is the crux here-has hit the trail into the wild, looking for surcease from a life gone sour, or at least for his soul. He travels with Virgil, a runic, mostly monosyllabic, guilelessly endearing character. Early on they meet...
