I Kemembbb, I remember The house where I was born, The little window where the sun Came peeping in at morn; He never came a wink too soon, Nor brought too long a day;--But now I often wish the night Had borne my breath away! I remember, I remember The roses, red and white, The Tiolet, and the lily cups, Those flowers made of light; The lilacs where the robin built, And where my brother set The laburnum on his birthday, --The tree is living yet! I remember, I remember, Where I was used to swing, And thought the air must rush as fresh To swallows on the wing; My spirit flew in feathers then That is so heavy now, And summer pools could hardly cool The fever on my brow. I remember, I remember The fir trees...
