Excerpt from Traffic in Girls: And Work of Rescue Missions As the title of the book is The Traffic in Girls and Work of Rescue Missions, we have used facts which have come under our own observation, the substance of our lectures in the churches in the form of addresses to an audience, as that has been the request of thousands of our hearers. God grant that these facts rouse America as William T. Stead roused England. When the Pall Mall Gazette containing his Maiden Tribute of Modern Babylon appeared, no wonder the world fairly reeled under the awful disclosures. Libertines, saloon-keepers and brothel slave traders gnashed their teeth in rage that their infamies were exposed, and the cheeks of mothers blanched with terror as they learned of the snares set for the unwary feet of maidenhood.
